Manoa Experience 2014

What is Sulong Aral?

Sulong Aral, which derives from two Filipino words – sulong (to advance) and aral (root word for “study”) or “education”), is a federally funded program designed to increase post-secondary access for Filipino high school students from Oahu communities, raise persistence and completion rates of Filipino students at Leeward Community College, and increase the transfer rate of Filipino community college students into baccalaureate programs at the University of Hawai‘i at Manoa.

How can students benefit from Sulong Aral?

- Peer Mentoring
- Advising
- Tutoring
- Workshops (How to transfer, scholarships, college skills, study skills, etc.)
- Summer Bridge Program (Incoming & transfer students)
- Use of MacBooks, graphing calculators, & printer
- A place to study (Dap-ayan Learning Lounge in DA-204)
